

Barry T. Hoonan

Special Recognition

*2004 Edwin A. Hoey Award for Outstanding Educator in the English Language Arts by the National Council of Teachers of English.
*Three time Fullbright Exchange Teacher
*Featured teacher in Maryland Public Broadcasting and Annenberg/CPB Channel's video series "Making Meaning in Literature: A Workshop for Teachers, Grades 6-8" and "Engaging with Literature: A Workshop for Teachers, Grades 3-5."
*1990 Christa McAuliffe Excellence in Education Award

Author

Co-author:
Literature Circles and Response. Christopher Gordon Publishing, 1995
Inquiry and Multiple Ways of Knowing. National Council of Teachers of English, 2000.

National Leadership

Elected member, NCTE Middle Level Steering Committee, 2001-2003. NCTE Speakers Bureau, current. NCTE Reading Commission, 1999-2001.

Software

Microsoft, Redmond, WA. Headbone Interactive, Consultant Pacific Interactive, Seattle, WA. 1992 -1999.

Teaching Experience

Twenty-five years of teaching experience; grades first through eighth with three years spent teaching overseas.

Education

Lesley College,
Cambridge, MA

Master's Degree in Education, Arts in Education August 1993

University of
New Hampshire

University of New Hampshire Writing Project, Donald Graves and Jane Hansen, July - August 1986

University of
Puget Sound

Institute for Teachers of Highly Able Students Scholarship Recipient for Rural Schools, July 1984

University of Washington,

Teaching Certificate
Elementary Education with Special Education Seattle, WA emphasis, June 1982
Bachelor of Arts, School of Communications:
Journalism/Advertising, March 1981.

University of London, England

Media Studies Abroad, 1980